

The Old Hall Team

The Old Hall is a small family run business which is what helps make it so special. We have a great team behind us which is reflected in the friendly, vibrant atmosphere at the Inn

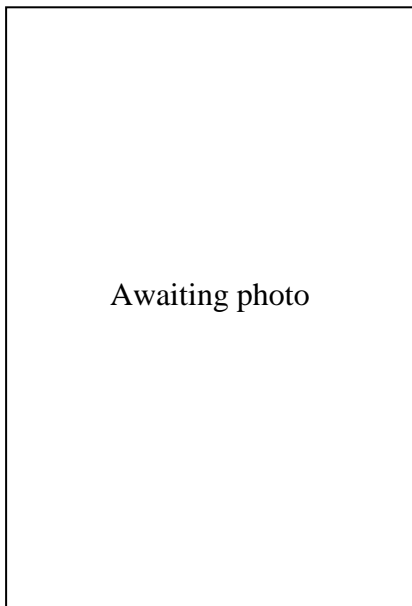

Landlord Dan Capper (left) took over the business in October 2008 and has since continued to grow the business with a strong emphasis on local produce and real ale. Dan's partner Nat Fielding (top right) is a doctor by day, but by night helps Dan as chief Ale taster!

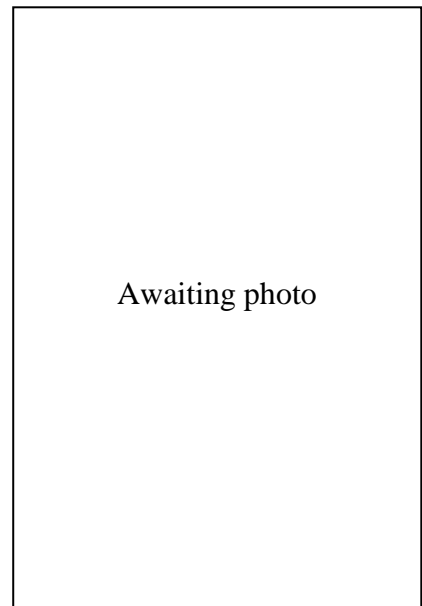

Dan's Parents (right) are always around helping with breakfasts and the general running.

Kitchen is run by Head Chef Mark Atkinson. All our chefs have a varied background, but all share the same passion for fresh food.
